Choose your main course:

HAPPY DANCE

- First, ask the group to imagine they’re auditioning for the Talent Show! Their task is to prepare a song or dance that explains how to be happy and healthy.
- The song or dance could be based on an existing routine (e.g. the banana song) or an entirely new one.
- Ask participants to work together in small groups to write a song or dance.
- When everyone’s finished, groups perform.

HEALTHY HUNT

- Showing the eight objects, the group guesses which object represents each of the things we need to be happy and healthy, e.g. soap = washing.
- Split into eight groups to design a scavenger hunt! Assign a different object to each group.
- Each group should decide on a hiding place for their object and write a clue to tell people where to find it (make two copies of each clue.) Show the example clues (provided) to help.
- To set up the hunt, hide each clue with a different object. Then give each group the second copy of a clue and go!

Reflection:

1. Introduce the Badge Tracker and how to use it.
2. Ask everyone to colour in the green section, then write what they learned today. Prompt using the Key Messages and ask:
   - What do you need to be happy and healthy?
   - Do you have any unhealthy eating habits? e.g. skipping breakfast.
   - What could you do to be even healthier?
3. Congratulate everyone on completing the green stage! Keep all Badge Trackers safe.

Can’t meet up?
Ask the group to read the Talent Show script then design a scavenger hunt for their family to find the eight things we need.

SETTING: studio. 5 characters: 4 teenage friends (Rio – a girl, Zarook – a boy, Rojo – a girl, Ummy – a girl) and TV producer

ALL characters are sitting on chairs, in a line, waiting near a door

RIO: I just need to say it. I know we’re all thinking it. I’m so nervous!

ZAROOK: [Knees shaking] Yeah, I kept waking up last night with nerves.

TV PRODUCER opens the door. They ALL turn to look

TV PRODUCER: Ummy? You’re up next.

UMMY: That’s me! OK everyone, see you afterwards. Wish me luck!

They ALL say, “Good luck!” Ummy walks out of the door

ROJO: If we all get to perform on the Talent Show, the nerves will be worth it!

RIO: I need to calm myself down. At least we’ve all auditioned now.

RIO gets up and walks around. She sees a poster on the wall

RIO: Have you all seen this poster? It says that successful Talent Show contestants will have to have a health check before they can officially be accepted. It says the check will assess three things: how healthy our diet is, how healthy our environment is, and how healthy our lifestyle is.

They ALL walk over to the poster

ZAROOK: It’s got the government stamp on it, and the Department of Health so it must be official. So, what would we all need to do?

They ALL fall silent, thinking and reading the poster. Ummy comes through the door

UMMY: I’m so glad that’s over! I think the audition went ok - I did my best. What are you all doing? You look so serious!

ROJO: We’ve just seen this official poster saying that we need to pass a health check for the competition. Look – it says they’ll be checking our habits! Do we eat three balanced meals per day and drink lots of clean water? That’s a healthy diet. They’ll also check that we keep ourselves and our living areas clean – especially taking a bath or shower every day – that’s a healthy environment.

ZAROOK: And finally, for healthy lifestyle there’s several things: do we get enough sleep (we need 8-10 hours), do exercise every day, go to school or college, and visit a doctor or clinic regularly for check-ups? It says that if we make good choices now, we’re more likely to have brighter futures.

RIO: I don’t know about you all, but I think I have some unhealthy habits that I need to change if I’m going to be successful - in the competition but also in life!

ALL: Agreed!

TV PRODUCER enters. “We’ve made a decision.”
